65FR 44843.
7-19-00

(161)

Nov. 12

Dear Mr Meyer.

I urge the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission not to deregulate radioactive wastes from nuclear reactors and other sources. These wastes would be an on-going hazard to human and animal life.

Respected scientists contend that there is no known threshold under which radiation can be considered safe, and I agree with them.

Sincerely,

Joan Harvey

ADM03

ERIDS-03

Add Tom Nicholson TJN

ADM-013