the operation of the Missouri University Research Reactor (MURR).

An Environmental Impact Statement could help with the awareness of the standards and MURR operation.

Standards and instrumentation are expensive up front, but in the long run will save the environment, healthcare, lots of money and other things.

Dear Chief Lesar,

Radiation can cause and cure cancer. Too much radiation can kill a person. The right dosage can cure. Cancer is a most dread disease. Personal stories I've heard and my own experience tell me there is a dire need for strict standards concerning

(1) (← see upper left)

The less radioactive waste produced the better for all. This can only be achieved through standards.

Otherwise it will be a free for all and greed and ignorance will do us all in.
