John:

We've had some trouble with contract "glitches" but we expect to get those resolved this week. The workplan/budget were fine. I'll get back with you as soon as the contracts issues are resolved.

Mark--I wanted to check on the status of funding paperwork for the Plant Vogtle model work. I assume that since I haven't heard from you that the workplan/budget was acceptable? We have already done some preliminary work, but are holding off going "full tilt" until we hear back from you.
