Morning Kim

Thanks for the attached information you sent. I will review all the information.

I really appreciate your assistance in properly filing my presentation. The attachment is to large to go through my email. I tried and it was rejected because of its size. I will print and forward a hard copy through snail mail to your attention.

Speak to you soon . It has been great talking nukes with you.

Would it be to much to ask to return the copy I gave at the presentation.

Thanks again
Karl
