Hello Mr. Hatchett and Mr. Willingham,

The Delaware Nation has received correspondence regarding Notification of the issuance of the draft environmental impact statement for the Comanche Peak Nuclear Power Plant, Units 3 and 4 combined license application review. The Cultural Preservation Director, Ms. Tamara Francis has reviewed the information provided along with cross referencing with our files and has determined that the Delaware Nation has no comment to provide on the project. Please continue with the project.

If you have any questions please do no hesitate to contact our office. Also, I've attached our correct Consultation Point of Contact letter for your files.

Thank you again for taking the time and effort to properly consult with the Delaware Nation,

Jason Ross

RE: Consultation Points of Contact

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter serves as notice that proper consultation on Lenape or Delaware related culture areas, archaeology, disposition of ancestral human remains, objects of cultural patrimony, materials and objects possessing ongoing cultural significance can only be conducted with the federally recognized Lenape entities. There are three federally recognized Lenape entities in the United States, the Stockbridge Munsee Band of Mohican Indians (Wisconsin), the Delaware Tribe of Indians (Bartlesville, OK), and the Delaware Nation (Anadarko, OK).

This letter also serves notice that only Tribal designee of the Delaware Nation that has been provided authority to fulfill all of the duties, task, and responsibilities or protocols of disposition of ancestral human remains, objects of cultural patrimony, materials and objects possessing ongoing cultural significance relevant to the Delaware Nation is the Cultural Preservation Director, Ms. Tamara Francis. This authority extends to the following:

a) Human remains and objects as defined in P.L. 101-601, the Native American Grave Protection and Repatriation Act, which have been found, or will be found eligible pursuant to the provisions of the Act, for the return to the Delaware Nation, and
b) Human remains and objects of archaeological and /or cultural significance that are discovered on prehistoric, historic, and present day Delaware Nation lands in the course of exploratory work, resource development, or any activity that is sponsored or permitted by the landowner.

Ms. Francis has the authority to manage all Section 106, NAGPRA, and cultural consultation correspondences. Ms. Francis has the authority to endorse concurrences on behalf of the Delaware Nation. The Delaware Nation Executive Committee appointed Ms. Francis to this position April 26, 2004. Please direct all NAGPRA, Section 106, and cultural consultation inquiries to Ms. Francis.

Should you have questions or concerns, do not hesitate to contact the Delaware Nation. We look forward to establishing a long and productive working relationship with your organization.

Sincerely,

Kerry Holton
Delaware Nation President
