Guy:
Thanks for the catch on the wrong dates on latest schedule.

Yellow highlight was meant to point out the names and other changes that have been added to the list since the last version I sent. (help Amy keep track).

I am presently in Mississippi visiting family. The Yazoo is flooded and Jerry's family farm land is underwater. They have killed four water moccassins this week. I will be certain to warn our team of strong potential for snake encounters.

On my way back from Yazoo City to Brandon, I rode by and saw hotel where we will be staying and drove by Entergy headquarters to test our mapquest directions I will be sending out. I am familiar with the hotel - but I remember it as the Ramada Rennaissance which was the name it had 20 years ago (when I stayed there on my wedding night!)

I will talk to you on Tuesday.

Tami

Thanks, Tami.
A few quick items:
1. What does the yellow highlight mean?
2. Looks like the dates on the schedule for Thursday, Friday should be 6/19,20 respectively.
Have a good and safe holiday weekend!

Subject: Updates to GG audit schedule to include transmission tour and recent additions of staff

Amy:

Based on the conversations yesterday on the transmission tour and on new additions we have to the audit attendee list, I have made a few updates to the draft audit schedule. I have heard from Dan Mussatti and he says that anytime Wednesday is ok with the Need for Power reviewers to talk to the Entergy, Inc people in New Orleans. The new additions should be highlighted in yellow and I think will only be from Monday to Wednesday.

Let me know if you see any details I have neglected to include or anything you see that might need revisiting. I will talk to you on Tuesday.

Thanks.

Tami
