Dara – After reading through the letter, I recall having received it around the New Year. I didn't think, at the time I received it, that we needed anything additional on this item, and I don't think we need anything more at this point. If I find anything that suggests a different course of action, though, I will let you know.

Best,
Drew

Drew
Relative to our discussions regarding the 'discovery' of a more recent WQC – here is the submittal of it to DEC (who had been previously unaware of its existence), on which you were copied.
Please let me know if this clarifies things in terms of anything more you would like us to submit.
Thanks
