Michael:

As I stated during our earlier conversation, APS would like an additional two weeks with which to respond to the Request for Additional Information Regarding Control Systems Vulnerability (TAC NOS. MD 9096, MD 9097 and MD 9098).

APS has complied with the industry's voluntary initiative on control system vulnerability and has completed the written responses based upon industry guidance. However, APS would appreciate the additional two week response window to further refine APS' response and to confirm certain industry positions.

Please call me at your earliest convenience it you have questions regarding this request, and thanks for considering this request on such short notice.
