Tom,

We can limit our attendance to six but would like to request an open conference line for the remainder of our staff. We can provide a conference call-in number as we finalize the meeting.

John,

For planning purpose, I've reserved a conference room in our building (T-300) on February 2, 2011. It is a small room with a capacity seating of 10. If STP plans to bring more than six people, it will be uncomfortable after a couple of hours.

Please let me know what your attendance is before I issue the meeting notice.

Regards
