Subject: Maximum Possession Limits

The licensee did not specify maximum possession limits of the isotopes authorized on the license. I called the licensee to request the number of gauges that they currently possess.

Patrick Crowell (Project Engineer) responded to my call because the RSO was not available. He stated that they currently possess 3 Troxler Model 3430 moisture density gauges and do not have plans to acquire additional gauges. I explained to him that their license will be revised to include a maximum possession limit of each isotope and that the authorized user condition and the inventory requirement condition will be revised in accordance with current NRC policy, and two other conditions will be removed from the amended license.

He stated that he will let the RSO (who is also a Principal) know of this amendment.
