Andrea & Christianne,
Thanks for the opportunity to meet with your team and start the process of your review. We consider the meetings and information exchanges were productive and useful.

We all have a clear understanding of what actions are needed to support your continued review.

I would like to suggest that we have a follow-up call to discuss ways we could improve our interface with you or lessons learned from your team.

If you consider this useful, let me know and I will set up a short conference call to discuss the same.
