

Polytechnic University of Puerto Rico Faculty Development

Executive Summary

Funds are requested by Polytechnic University of Puerto Rico, or Universidad Politecnica de Puerto Rico to increase the number of students and faculty that can participate in research in the electrical and computer engineering curriculum. This will allow collaboration between faculty and students in research and participation to stimulate research at PUPR and help Hispanic minority enrollment in nuclear science and engineering related disciplines.

Principal Investigator: Houssain Kettani, Ph.D., hkettani@pupr.edu