

MDC Nuclear Scholarship Program

Executive Summary:

The MDC Nuclear Scholarship Program will provide financial support to electric power technology students at a critical point in their academic career. This academic support will allow more students to complete their associate degrees and enter the nuclear industry workforce. This program will also connect students to academic and peer mentors. Up to 30 students will be able to receive scholarships through this program.

Principal Investigator: Thania Rios, trios@mdc.edu