SUBJECT: PUBLIC MEETINGS SUMMARY

On August 26, 2009 and on August 27, 2009, representatives of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) held a Category 3 public meeting in Kailua-Kona, Hawaii and Hilo, Hawaii, respectively. The purpose of each meeting was to: (1) solicit public comments concerning the U.S. Department of the Army's (Army) application for a possession only license for depleted uranium and the Army's generic physical security and environmental monitoring plans and the specific environmental monitoring plan proposed for the Pohakuloa Training Area; and (2) provide a description of the NRC's review process for the license application; and (3) describe how the public may become involved in the licensing process. Enclosed are the agendas for the meetings. A listing of meetings' participants can be found in the NRC's Agencywide Documents Access Management System (ADAMS) (ML092230502 & ML092230517). The NRC's Powerpoint presentation can be found in the NRC's ADAMS (ML092810060). Both meetings were transcribed. The transcripts of the two meetings can be found in ADAMS (ML092710452 & ML092710450). At the two meetings, some of the attendees provided copies of their statements or publications which they considered relevant to the proposed action. Those items can also be found in ADAMS (ML092810283).
