Pilot Test of Broadcasting of Commission Meetings Over the Internet Customer Satisfaction Survey

The U. S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission is currently pilot testing (now thru March 26, 2001) the broadcasting of Commission meetings over the Internet as a means of improving communications with the public. You may view live Commission meetings as they take place or you may view, at a later time, meetings that have been archived for your convenience. The NRC would appreciate your assistance in answering the following questions. This information will assist NRC in determining the value of providing this service in the future. Thank you for your cooperation.

Viewer's affiliation (Please check your affiliation each time you view a Commission meeting.)
