NRC BEGINS SERIES OF NOONTIME CONCERTS
IN ROCKVILLE

The Nuclear Regulatory Commission will host a series of outdoor noontime concerts which will be open to the public at its headquarters in Rockville, Maryland. The concerts will be held on the lawn between NRC's two buildings across from the White Flint Metro Station at 11555 Rockville Pike, Rockville, Maryland.

The next concert, at noon on July 27, will feature the Naval Academy's "Electric Brigade." The Electric Brigade is a dynamic nine-piece rock 'n' roll band featuring the latest top forty hits.

On August 10, the 40-piece Quantico Marine Concert Band will perform.

Additional performances will be scheduled throughout the season as weather permits. For more information, please contact Celeste Smyre or Renea Bailey at (301) 504-3507.
