DR. SHIRLEY ANN JACKSON SWORN IN AS MEMBER OF NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

Dr. Shirley Ann Jackson was sworn in this afternoon as a member of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission for a term that expires June 30, 1999.

The oath of office was administered by Dr. Jackson's sister Gloria Joseph, Director of Administration for the National Labor Relations Board.

President Clinton has announced that Dr. Jackson will succeed Dr. Ivan Selin as Commission Chairman when he steps down on July 1.

Since 1991, Dr. Jackson, who holds S.B., M.A. and Ph.D. degrees in physics from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, has served as a professor in the Department of Physics and Astronomy at Rutgers University and as a consultant in semiconductor theory at AT&T Bell Laboratories.

She also is serving as a trustee for the Corporation of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and has been the recipient of numerous individual honors and awards.
