NRC NAMES NEW RESIDENT INSPECTORS AT LASALLE NUCLEAR POWER PLANT

Nuclear Regulatory Commission officials in Lisle, Illinios, have announced the assignment of Jeffrey Hansen and Randall Crane as the agency's Resident Inspectors at the LaSalle Nuclear Power Station, located near Seneca, Illinois.

Hansen joined NRC in 1991 as an operator licensing examiner. From 1995 through 1997 he was a resident inspector at the Dresden Nuclear Power Station in Illinois. Prior to joining the agency, he worked as a health and safety coordinator for Engineering Science, Inc. He was also a technical specification surveillance coordinator for the Perry nuclear plant in Ohio and licensed as a senior reactor operator while employed at the Wolf Creek nuclear plant in Kansas. He received a Bachelor of Science in General Studies from the State University of New York Regents College. He and his family live in Yorkville, Illinois.

Prior to joining NRC in April, Crane held management positions at the Browns Ferry nuclear plant in Alabama. He also served as a submarine officer in the nuclear power program of the U.S. Navy. He received a bachelor's degree in chemical engineering from Wayne State University and a master's degree in management from Rensseler Polytechnic Institute. He and his family will live in Naperville, Illinois.

Hansen and Crane join NRC Senior Resident Marc Huber at LaSalle. They can be reached at 815/357-8611.
