Re: Reciprocity Violations

Dear Dr. Patterson:

Your letter dated April 14, 2000, is acknowledged. The letter describes the actions that have been taken to correct the violation documented during our March 14, 2000 reciprocity inspection. Be advised that because Metorex has a history of violations in Nevada, future violations of the Nevada Administrative Code (NAC) by Metorex, Inc. may preclude granting of reciprocity authorization in Nevada. Consequently, Metorex, Inc. has been placed on an increased inspection frequency.

The corrective actions will be reviewed during each of your trips into Nevada to determine their effectiveness.

If you have any questions, call this office at (775) 687-5394.

Sincerely,

Handwritten signature of Stanley R. Marshall.

Stanley R. Marshall, Supervisor
Radiological Health Section
Deputy Food and Drug Commissioner
