barry,

speaking only for myself, I am so fed up with the NRC's pretenses at public involvement that I really cannot stand it....

Everything you are doing is complete bullshit; you are steadfastly given us NRC documents and NEI documents and I can't tell the difference between the two--probably because there is no difference.

If you think this, in any way, represents public participation on this issue, you'd better think again....

The NRC is completely in the hands of the nuclear industry, and I, for one, want to have nothing to do with this rogue, bought-and-paid-for, arrogant and literally anti-American agency..... This is an agency that would have been proud to exist in Soviet Russia....
