re: In the Matter of Private Fuel Storage LLC, Docket No. 72-22, ASLBP No. 97-732-02-ISFSI
State's General Preference for Filing Simultaneous Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Dear Judges Bollwerk, Kline and Lam:

During the June 17, 1998, Prehearing Conference, Chairman Bollwerk requested me to advise the Board whether the State would generally prefer to file simultaneous findings and conclusions at the same time as the Applicant, the Staff and other parties, together with simultaneous responses by all parties, or whether the State would prefer sequence filings with the Applicant filing the initial findings and conclusion and the Staff and other parties filing a response.

On reflection, the State believes that its findings and conclusions will be comprehensive and as a general matter elects the more efficient and preferable procedure that all parties file simultaneous findings and conclusions followed by simultaneous responses.

Sincerely,

Denise Chancellor
Assistant Attorney General
