This is a letter of protest to establishing a nuclear waste dump on the Goshute Reservation or any other site in the state of Utah.

Reasons for not locating a nuclear waste dump on the Goshute Reservation are as follow:

In case of an accident public health consequences would be devastating, especially to infants, children and pregnant women. People could not evacuate fast enough to escape radiation exposure.

The proposed site is in a seismic zone.

Waste shipped by train or truck pose a real possibility of train de-railments or truck accidents.

Property values along nuclear waste transport routes would decline because of the devastating consequences of an accident. Property values within 50 miles of the site could decline.

The stigma of having the largest nuclear waste dump in the world would be economically harmful to Utah and the Salt Lake City area.

Neither homeowners insurance nor health insurance covers problems caused by radioactive waste accidents.

Sincerely,

G. Robert Herman
