Steve:

We are reviewing your 9/21/00 submittal (NMP1L). Our reviewer Shou-Nien Hou has the following question/comment. Please call me to arrange a conference call to discuss. During the call we will also discuss the disposition of the question. The question does not at this time constitute a formal request for information, nor does it represent a formal staff position.

The 9/21/00 submittal indicated that during the period of the requested two-year delay for preparing the risk-informed ISI program, all required augmented examinations, with the exception of Category A (resistant material) welds of GL 88-01, will be performed as scheduled during RFO-16. Note that Information Notice 98-44 stated that the performance of augmented examinations would be unaffected by the delay in updating ISI programs to accommodate development of the risk-informed ISI program. Please explain the bases of the underlined exception, or revise the submittal to withdraw the exception.

Please attempt to schedule the conference during 10/31 thru 11/3. Thanks.

Peter
