Subject: Fwd: RWP deleted NAC Team Meetings, Routine Schedule

Earl,

I have been noticing that it is difficult to get a quorum for NAC Team meetings, which have been held regularly on Thursday mornings for quite some time. I recognize that people are out of the office for various business related purposes, but I do wonder if I could pick a better time that would accomodate peoples typical credit hours selections. Do you have any alternatives (other than lunch time) that would be better?

Tim
