RE: Request for Concurrence on determination of adverse effects for the archeological and historic sites identified within the area of potential effects.

Mr. Delligatti:

With reference to your letter of December 1, 2000, we do concur with the determination of the cooperating Federal agencies with regard to their determination of adverse affects of certain historic and archeological sites.

After a careful review of the Draft Memorandum of Agreement, we have found one discrepancy. One page two of the agreement, second paragraph, please be advised that the Skull Valley Band of Goshute Indians was not organized under Section 16 of the Indian Reorganization Act of 1934. We were organized under the Treaty, Shoshoni-Goships of October 12, 1863, and ratified by executive orders in 1917 and 1918.

If you have any questions or need addition information, feel free to contact me at your convenience.

Thank you,

WHEREAS, a Class III Inventory, the purpose of which is the identification of prehistoric sites, historic sites and structures, and cultural landscapes that may be affected by the Project, has been conducted, and a report on the results of the Class III Inventory (the Report) has been provided to the cooperating Federal agencies and to the signatory and concurring parties through submission in September and October 2000; and,

WHEREAS, the cooperating Federal agencies, in consultation with the other signatory and concurring parties to this Agreement agree to avoid, minimize, or mitigate any adverse effects to historic properties; and the signatory and the signatory and concurring parties shall discuss how any adverse effects to historic properties will be mitigated in a Treatment Plan to be approved by the signatory parties.

NOW, THEREFORE, the signatory parties agree that if approved, the Project shall be implemented in accordance with the following stipulations in order to take into account the effects of the Project on historic properties and that these stipulations shall govern the Project and all of its parts until the Agreement expires or is terminated.
