Dear friends,

We have two hot issues coming up or possibly coming up at next Chatham Commissioners' meeting at courthouse (new) in Pittsboro, and a candlelight vigil planned for 6 PM same night in protest of CP & L's plan to double its hot storage, recently approved by NRC over its own still-debating licensing board. The other issue is a proposal landfill for Moncure. Please come and help us here in Chatham! And Chatham folks, please help us in Moncure! We don't want to be dumped on over and over! Big meeting on the landfill proposal Jan 10, Wed, at 7 PM in middle school auditorium on Moncure School Rd.

ADJUDICATIONS STAFF

SERVED JAN - 9 2001

Yours for health and safety in Chatham, Judy Hogan
Commissioners' phone numbers: Margaret Pollard, 542-4845, Carl Outz, 542-2685, Gary Phillips, 742-5883, Rick Givens, 742-5881, and our new, just elected, Bob Atwater, 933-3937.

From NC Warn:

We just confirmed the Chatham Commissioners will make some move on Jan. 16.
We don't know how strong a move but much will depend on the public.

So the candlelight vigil is on for 6pm at the Pittsboro court square, prior to the commission meeting.

THIS IS A PERFECT ORGANIZING OPPORTUNITY and a chance to up the pressure on CP&L and the NRC. Being one of the two most local counties makes Chatham's voice really important.

Please do all possible to get people out and be there yourself with your family and friends. In 1986 there was a packed court square as Chatham Commissioners voted against the Shearon Harris evacuation plan - which stopped the licensing effort until a backroom deal quietly overturned the vote. Let's do it again!

We don't have much time so please ring the bell and let's get a bunch of people to the vigil.

After an insult like we got from the NRC, CP&L, the licensing board, the media and our politicians will be watching to see how strongly we can blast back into action.

Let's show 'em!

Jim
