TWO IMPORTANT ACTIONS FOR OUR COMMUNITY

The county commissioners of Chatham will decide February 19th if they will take a stand on the CP&L nuclear waste expansion issue, joining others in the region who have insisted upon safety hearings from the Nuclear Regulatory Commission. If Chatham were to assert its voice in the name of safety, the NRC would be even further pressured to hold safety hearings.

Monday, February 19th, 7:00 p.m.

Chatham County Courthouse Annex, Pittsboro

(south side of court circle)

Please come to this meeting in Pittsboro if you can. Urge Chatham, one of the two closest counties to the Shearon Harris plant, to call for an open public debate on the risks this expansion would bring to central North Carolina. If you live in Chatham, please let commissioners Bob Atwater and Margaret Pollard know how you feel about this issue.

Senator Edwards and Representative Price have the power to challenge the NRC.

a.. If you have been calling Senator Edwards and Representative Price about this issue, WE THANK YOU- IT'S WORKING!

b.. If you haven't, please take the time for a 20-second call or a one-sentence e-mail. Don't let this region live under a cloud of uncertainty-- ask them to do everything possible to protect our region from an unnecessary risk.
