Dear Mr. Meserve:

On behalf of the Principals of the Joint Financial Management Improvement Program (JFMIP), I am writing to thank you for your recent nomination of Jesse L. Funches for the Donald L. Scantlebury Memorial Award for distinguished leadership in financial management.

The JFMIP has concluded the nominations review process and decided to present awards this year to the following individuals:

Mr. Kenneth M. Bresnahan, former Chief Financial Officer,
Department of Labor

Mr. Lawrence F. Alwin, CPA, Texas State Auditor
Texas State Auditor's Office

We were pleased to learn through the awards process about the leaders making financial management improvements and their many accomplishments. To express our recognition of Mr. Funches' nomination, I would appreciate your conveying the enclosed personal letter to him.

You may wish to enter an updated nomination next year; we will publicize the Awards program in the fall of 2001.

Sincerely yours,

Karen Cleary Alderman
Executive Director

Dear Mr. Funches:

This is to congratulate you on your recent nomination for the Donald L. Scantlebury Memorial Award for distinguished leadership in financial management. This is an award program sponsored by the Federal government that recognizes the top-level financial executives who have made an outstanding contribution in improving financial management in the public sector. Although you are not receiving this year's award, we would like to commend you for your outstanding leadership and the significant improvements that you have made.

Your nomination indicates the high esteem which Richard A. Meserve, Chairman, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission regards your work. We know that you will continue in your activities for excellence in financial management, and we wish you success in your future work.

Sincerely yours,
