NRC Review of EMF-2361(P) Revision 0, EXEM BWR-2000 ECCS Evaluation Model

Ref.: 1. Letter, James F. Mallay (SPC) to Document Control Desk (NRC), "Request for Review of EMF-2361(P) Revision 0, EXEM BWR-2000 ECCS Evaluation Model," NRC:00:045, November 7, 2000.

Framatome ANP Richland, Inc. (formerly Siemens Power Corporation) submitted a topical report for NRC review and approval in Reference 1. The methodology described in the topical report is for the performance of LOCA analyses for BWRs. In support of this submittal, Framatome ANP Richland, Inc. is providing with this letter a CD containing the codes RELAX, PREHUXY, and HUXY as well as selected test cases. The CD also contains: (a) additional codes and files necessary to execute the test cases; (b) users manuals for the main codes; and (c) a description of the contents of the CD, instructions for copying the information from the CD, and directions for executing the test cases. The CD has been provided directly to N. Kalyanam.

Framatome ANP Richland, Inc. considers the enclosed CD to be proprietary. As required by 10 CFR 2.790(b), an affidavit is enclosed to support the withholding of this information from public disclosure.

Very truly yours,

James F. Mallay, Director
Regulatory Affairs

6. The following criteria are customarily applied by FRA-ANP to determine whether information should be classified as proprietary:

- (a) The information reveals details of FRA-ANP's research and development plans and programs or their results.
- (b) Use of the information by a competitor would permit the competitor to significantly reduce its expenditures, in time or resources, to design, produce, or market a similar product or service.
- (c) The information includes test data or analytical techniques concerning a process, methodology, or component, the application of which results in a competitive advantage for FRA-ANP.
- (d) The information reveals certain distinguishing aspects of a process, methodology, or component, the exclusive use of which provides a competitive advantage for FRA-ANP in product optimization or marketability.
- (e) The information is vital to a competitive advantage held by FRA-ANP, would be helpful to competitors to FRA-ANP, and would likely cause substantial harm to the competitive position of FRA-ANP.

7. In accordance with FRA-ANP's policies governing the protection and control of information, proprietary information contained in this Document has been made available, on a limited basis, to others outside FRA-ANP only as required and under suitable agreement providing for nondisclosure and limited use of the information.

8. FRA-ANP policy requires that proprietary information be kept in a secured file or area and distributed on a need-to-know basis.

9. The foregoing statements are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.
