Some Restriction Special

Paul R. Nelson

7. Breakdown of the office, refers to M. P. S. Stollen, authorized man under the subject license, that the Western Company facilities at the above address are now owned and operated by the Western Corporation. Stollen said he would notify DML accordingly. He also said that no material has ever been approved or used under the subject license but that it is desired that a license remain in force to cover future contingencies.
