Claim of Confidentiality for letter dated April 13, 2001, re GrayStar

SUMMARY:

I called Mr. Lashway, counsel to GrayStar, Inc. regarding the notation "Confidential" on his letter to NRC dated April 13, 2001. I explained to him that the subject of the letter was GrayStar's proprietary claim for its drawings, but the letter itself and its attachment did not contain proprietary information. Based on this information, Mr. Lashway waived the statement "Confidential" and said that the letter with its attachment may be placed in NRC records as publicly available.
