Gross annual receipts include all revenue in whatever form received or accrued from whatever sources, not solely receipts reported from licensed activities. For purposes of this certification, the gross annual receipts reported on the licensee's last tax return should be used to determine eligibility for small entity status. The licensee must have an average gross receipt of $5 million or less over its last 3 fiscal years to qualify.

- The size standards apply to the licensee, not the individual authorized users listed in the license.
- A subsidiary of a large entity does not qualify as a small entity under the NRC's size standards.
- You do not meet the financial criteria under NRC's size standards.

Licensees classified as manufacturing concerns, with an average number of 500 or fewer employees during each pay period for the preceding 12 calendar months.

- Your company is not classified as a manufacturing concern according to the SIC/NAICS code.

Governmental jurisdictions referred to in the size standards are governments of cities, counties, towns, townships, villages, school districts, or special districts.

- Governmental jurisdictions with a population over 50,000 do not qualify as small entities.
- You do not meet the criteria of a governmental jurisdiction.
- The educational institution is not supported by a qualifying governmental jurisdiction.
- Federal agencies do not qualify as small entities.
- State agencies do not qualify as small entities.
- The hospital is classified as a Nongovernmental Not-For-Profit Organization in the American Hospital Association Guide.

An educational institution referred to in the size standards is an entity whose primary function is education, whose programs are accredited by a nationally recognized accrediting agency or association, who is legally authorized to provide a program of organized instruction or study, who provides an education program for which it awards academic degrees, whose educational programs are available to the public, and is not publicly supported and has 500 or fewer employees.

- You do not meet the criteria of an educational institution.

- NRC Form 526 has not been signed by the Certifying Official.
- Additional information is required.
