CLYDE C. OSTERHOLTZ NAMED NRC SENIOR RESIDENT INSPECTOR AT SAN ONOFRE NUCLEAR GENERATING STATION

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission has named Clyde C. Osterholtz senior resident inspector at San Onofre Nuclear Generating Station, a nuclear power plant near San Clemente, Calif. Mr. Osterholtz joins resident inspector John Kramer.

Mr. Osterholtz is a 1990 graduate of The Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio, with a bachelor of science degree in Engineering Physics/Nuclear Engineering. Prior to college, Mr. Osterholtz was an electronics technician and reactor operator in the U.S. Navy submarine service.

Mr. Osterholtz joined the NRC after graduation in 1990 and worked for six years in Region III offices, Lisle, Illinois, in the operator licensing branch. He then became resident inspector at Ginna Station near Rochester, New York. In December, 1999, he was assigned resident inspector at Fort Calhoun Station, in Nebraska.
