Describe Follow-up: (Telephone, Internet, Chamber of Commerce, Other) Tracked the gauge by first contacting Honeywell Corporation via telephone and spoke with Joe Travis, Branch Manager, at (808) 591-6705. He has been employed by Honeywell in Hawaii since 1959 but could not remember of any gauge being obtained by Honeywell. The gauge was an Ohmart gauge so I called Candy Brock of Ohmart (513-272-0524 x159) who researched her records. She found that a 1000 mCi Cs-137 SDG gauge (S/N: 48186) was returned to them in June 1993 as part of a larger return shipment from Gamma Corporation in Honolulu, Hawaii. Her records search revealed that the gauge had been ordered by and shipped to Brown Instrument at 618 Coral Street, Honolulu, Hawaii in 1963. The gauge is currently in the inventory of Ohmart Corporation. (See attached documentation)
