RE: Working life for SSD 00-48

Working life was not addressed during this review due to the fact that no review was performed on technical content. This memorandum also documents that the working life is not listed on certificate NR-1128-D-101-E in accordance with the limited format for the registration certificate of an exempt-use product, including gas and aerosol detectors. as illustrated in Appendix H of NUREG-1556, Vol. 3, dated July 1998. It is noted that working life is addressed in the background file in the letter dated September 27, 1994.
