

On July 12, 2000, I contacted the Office of the Administrative Law Judges to determine whether the CI filed an appeal to the Dol's June 29, 2000 decision. I was informed that the CI had not filed an appeal according to the ALJ records, but that the ALJ may not have received the appeal paperwork yet. The individual I spoke with recommended that I recontact the ALJ in one week. I entered an action into AMS to check the status of the Dol's case before 07/21/2000.
