Subject: Request for Information

Mike, it is my understanding that you have requested the following information as a result of a recent allegation of disparate treatment by a former MURR employee:

1. e-mails between [redacted] regarding his post-employment access to MURR
2. e-mails between [redacted] and [redacted] regarding [redacted] EX 7C
3. e-mails between [redacted] and [redacted] (sp) regarding [redacted] access to MURR
4. Policies published regarding post-employment (i.e., retirees who took the "package") access to MURR
5. Non-email documents between [redacted] and/or [redacted] regarding the above items

As we discussed this morning, on November 1, 2000, the same place has been reserved that you occupied during your past interview session at MURR. The interview time has been set up for 11:00 am with [redacted]. We have not arranged for any one else to be available on that day. Please let me know if this list missed anything that you require. We will attempt to gather this information and to send it to you (express mail) promptly. I can be reached at 202-371-5748 (ofc) or at [redacted] (cell). See you on November 1.
