Dear Mr. Wilson:

Reference is made to your letter dated November 21, 1969, informing us that subject to the approval of the Department of Water Resources of the State of Nebraska, effective January 1, 1970, the name of Consumers Public Power District will be changed to Nebraska Public Power District.

In this connection, a copy of an order changing the name as specified in Construction Permit No. CPPB-42, of Consumers Public Power District to Nebraska Public Power District is enclosed.

This Order has been transmitted to the Office of the Federal Register for publication.

Sincerely,

Original Signed by
Peter A. Morris

UNITED STATES ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

DOCKET NO. 50-298

CONSUMERS PUBLIC POWER DISTRICT

ORDER CHANGING NAME OF COMPANY

Consumers Public Power District, (CPPD) is the holder of Construction Permit No. CPPR-42, dated June 4, 1968, authorizing it to construct and operate a single cycle, forced circulation, boiling water nuclear reactor at its Cooper Nuclear Station site near the village of Brownville, Nemaha County, Nebraska. On November 21, 1969, CPPD informed the Commission that subject to approval of the Department of Water Resources of the State of Nebraska, its name will be changed to Nebraska Public Power District effective January 1, 1970. The Commission was subsequently advised that this approval had been given.

Accordingly, it is hereby ordered that the name of the licensee appearing on Construction Permit No. CPPR 42 is changed from Consumers Public Power District to Nebraska Public Power District, effective January 1, 1970.
