I've been tasked to chair a DPV panel looking into the NRC's handling of an issue at Turkey Point. The issue involved the [redacted] belief that [redacted] presence was announced by the licensee's security personnel. The issue was identified as an NCV in TP [redacted] believes that the issue should have been treated as a cited violation.

This issue was brought to an ARB that you attended on February 5, 2002. It was determined to not be an allegation and NO OI interest is denoted on the ARB meeting summary.

Would you be available to discuss this issue with me and one of the members of the panel this Friday morning say at 9 or 9:30? We are trying to get at how the NRC determined that the violation was not willful. Thanks.
