COMPENSATION REQUESTED

5. Freeborn & Peters seeks interim allowance of the fees in the amount of $67,589.00 for legal services rendered and of expenses in the amount of $3,735.36 which were incurred during the Application Period (the "Requested Amount"). In addition, Freeborn & Peters requests that the Debtors be authorized to pay the $13,517.80 in legal fees representing the twenty percent (20%) "holdback" of fees as required by paragraph 2(d) of the Administrative Order (the "Hold Back").

BASIS FOR RELIEF

6. Section 330(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code allows the payment of:

(A) reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered by the trustee, examiner, professional person, or attorney and by any paraprofessional person employed by any such person; and

(B) reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1). Reasonableness of compensation is determined by the "market-driven) approach" which considers the nature, extent and value of the services provided by the professional and the cost of comparable services in nonbankruptcy contexts. See Zolfo Cooper

<sup>3</sup> Freeborn & Peters attempted to ensure that the Fee Applications complied with the Guidelines. To the extent the Guidelines conflicted with local rules, in particular, Local Rule 2016-2, Freeborn & Peters complied with such local & Co., v. Sunbeam-Oster Co., 50 F.3d 253, 258 (3d Cir. 1995); In re Busy Beaver Building Ctr., Inc., 19 F.3d 833, 849 (3d Cir. 1994). Thus, “the baseline rule is for firms to receive their customary rates.” Zolfo Cooper, 50 F.3d at 259.

7. In accordance with its practice in nonbankruptcy matters, Freeborn & Peters has calculated its compensation requested in this Application by applying its customary hourly rates. Freeborn & Peters’ calculation is based upon hourly rates that are well within the range of rates that are charged by comparable firms in other large bankruptcy cases. Accordingly, Freeborn & Peters’ rates should be determined to be reasonable under Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code.

8. Freeborn & Peters’ fees during the Application Period are also reasonable under the prevailing legal standard and should be allowed. The amount of these fees is not unusual given the complexity and size of the Debtors’ Chapter 11 cases and Freeborn & Peters’ fees are commensurate with fees that other professionals of comparable experience and expertise have charged and been awarded in similar Chapter 11 cases. Accordingly, Freeborn and Peters’ fees are reasonable pursuant to Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code.

9. Section 330(a)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code permits reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses. Freeborn & Peters’ services and expenses incurred during the Application Period are set forth in this Application and constitute only those necessary expenses that were incurred for the benefit of the Debtors’ estates. Freeborn & Peters has properly requested reimbursement only of actual, necessary and appropriate expenses.

10. No agreement or understanding exists between Freeborn & Peters and/or any third person for the sharing or division of compensation. All of the services for which compensation is requested in this Application were rendered at the request of and solely on behalf of the Committee.

11. Pursuant to the standards set forth in Sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, Freeborn & Peters submits that the Requested Amount is for actual and necessary services and expenses, and is reasonable, based upon the nature, extent and value of such services, the time spent thereon, and the costs of comparable services in a case under the Bankruptcy Code.

NOTICE

12. No trustee or examiner has been appointed in these Chapter 11 cases. Notice of this Application has been given to: (a) the United States Trustee; (b) counsel to the Debtors; (c) counsel to the Debtors' postpetition and prepetition lenders and (d) those entities having filed and served requests for notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. In light of the nature of the relief requested herein, Freeborn & Peters submits that no other or further notice is required.

WHEREFORE, Freeborn & Peters respectfully requests that the Court enter an order, substantially in the form attached hereto: (i) granting the Application; (ii) allowing the fees and expenses in the Requested Amount; (iii) authorizing the payment of the Hold Back; and (iv) granting such further relief as may be appropriate.
