Subject: call re: Self-Powered Lighting signs, purchase
Summary:
Bill Lynch returned the 10/15 call to NRC regarding the purchase of Self-Powered Lighting (SPL). He stated that Safety Light will become a contract manufacturer for assembling and eventually distributing aircraft and commercial luminous signs. He stated that there is no other relationship between Safety Light Corporation, and no funding came from Safety Light. He corroborated Larry Harmon's statement that the funding to acquire SPL came through a lien on previous SPL debt, and that no funds were exchanged. When questioned about the new owners, he stated that SPL is now SP Lighting Corporation, which is a new company. The financial arrangement was transacted through bankruptcy proceedings in Orange County, CA. I also confirmed with Bill Lynch that no waste materials are to be shipped to Bloomsburg material, and that only tritium used for product would be transferred. In addition, I requested confirmation on the amount remaining in the Safety Light insurance settlement fund ($174,628.75. as of 2/5/2002, of which $100,000 was authorized for use regarding the silo- re-packaging project. Coordination calls to EPA RIII (Sheri Minnick) and PADEP (Bob Maiers) were also made on 10/16 regarding this matter.
