Gentlemen:

On February 25, 2002, the NRC issued the Interim Safeguards and Security Compensatory Measures Order ("Order") for McGuire Nuclear Station Units 1 and 2. The Order included an attachment containing safeguards information which detailed specific interim compensatory measures (ICMs).

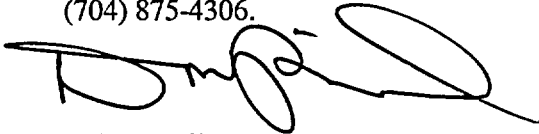

By Reference 1, McGuire Nuclear Station submitted its response to the Order. By References 2, 4 and 5, McGuire submitted supplemental responses to provide the NRC additional details to support their review of the McGuire response.

A conference call was held on December 9, 2002, with members of the NRC to discuss the McGuire response to ICM 2.b and a planned change related to actions associated with ICM 2.b. McGuire initiated the conference call because the planned change, although consistent with the response to ICM 2.b, raised questions when reviewed against Revision 1 to the Nuclear Energy Institute (NEI) guidance document. The NRC staff concurred that the change being proposed by McGuire was consistent with the intent of the NEI guidance document.

The purpose of this letter is to provide follow-up documentation of the key points of the December 9, 2002 telecon.
