Service can be shown by attaching to the certificate a specific listing of the parties served.

(b) Manner of Service

9. All Filings shall be served electronically, unless otherwise ordered by the Court. Service shall be via Email exclusively rather than U.S. Mail or any other method of service in the case of notice parties whose Email addresses are set forth on the Master Service List. Service of the Filing shall include as an attachment a computer file containing the entire Filing, including any proposed form of Order, Judgment, findings of fact or conclusions of law (a) in “.pdf” (“PDF”) format, readable by Adobe Acrobat or other equivalent document reader program commonly available without cost; (b) in Microsoft Word format, Corel Word Perfect format, or in some other word processing format in general business use; or (c) in ASCII or “text only” format, readable by any commonly used word processing program; or (ii) a paper copy of the entire Filing, including the proposed form(s) of Order, Judgment, findings of fact or conclusions of law, where notice is served via ordinary mail, expedited courier service or facsimile as set forth herein.

10. Additionally, all Filings, complaints and other pleadings filed in any adversary proceeding commenced in this case (the "Adversary Pleadings") shall be served on the Master Service List pursuant to the above-described service procedures, as well as upon any parties to such adversary proceeding required to be served under any applicable Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure or Local Rule of this Court.

11. All of the foregoing matters or proceedings set forth in this paragraph of this Order shall be noticed in accordance with the applicable provisions of Bankruptcy Rule 2002; provided, however, that notice of the foregoing matters or proceedings shall, unless otherwise ordered by the Court, be: (i) by Email as to any party in interest then on the Master Service List; and (ii) by regular U.S. mail, postage prepaid, as to any party of interest not on the Master Service List; provided further that nothing in this Order shall prejudice (i) the rights of any party in interest to move the Court to further limit or expand notice of such matters and proceedings upon a showing of good cause, including, but not limited to, the right to file a motion seeking emergency ex parte consideration or consideration upon shortened time; or (ii) the rights of any party to seek an enlargement or reduction of a time period under Bankruptcy Rule 9006(b) or (c).

12. Such Filing shall include notice of the time and date of any deadline for filing and serving any objection to the relief requested in the Filing, the time and date of the Omnibus Hearing (hereinafter defined) or other hearing date, as ordered by the Court, at which the Court will consider the Filing (the "Applicable Hearing Date"), and a statement that the relief requested in the Filing will be granted without a hearing if no objection thereto is timely filed and served.

13. Notice given in accordance with these Notice Procedures shall be deemed adequate pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio and for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Ohio.

(c) Requests to Receive Service by Regular Mail

14. The parties who file notices of appearance and who desire to be added to the Master Service List shall make a written request to that effect to the Debtors and include their Email address with such request. Any party wishing to receive service by a means other than Email must provide written notice of such request to Debtors' counsel within the sooner of (a) ten (10) days of the entry of this Order, if the requesting party has already received notice of the filing of this case or (b) simultaneously with any written request for that party's addition to the Master Service List, if the requesting party has not yet received notice of the Filing of this case. The Debtors shall have twenty (20) days to consider such request. If the Debtors either decline the request or fail to respond to same within such 20-day period, the requesting party may move the Court in accordance with the Notice Procedures, for good cause shown, for permission to "opt out" of receiving service via Email as contemplated by the Notice Procedures.

15. In the event the Court grants such party's request for service of Filings in a manner other than by Email, all subsequent Filings shall be served upon such party via first class U.S. Mail, postage prepaid unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

B. Omnibus Hearings

16. The Court shall conduct omnibus hearings on a monthly basis in this case (the "Omnibus Hearings"). The following dates and times have been scheduled as Omnibus Hearings in this chapter 11 proceeding, and further

January ~~2003~~ at ~~_____~~ a.m. / p.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time) o m c
February 27, 2003 at 2:00 a.m. / _____ p.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time)

March 22, 2003 at 2:00 a.m. / p.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time)

17. Omnibus Hearings will occur thereafter as may be scheduled by the Court upon request by any party at the last scheduled Omnibus Hearing. Omnibus Hearings shall be heard in Courtroom B, 170 North High Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215 unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

18. All matters requiring a hearing in this case shall be set for and heard on Omnibus Hearing dates unless alternative hearing dates are approved by the Court for good cause shown. Absent exigent circumstances, any Filing that is a motion, application, or other request, together with the notice of opportunity to object and notice of hearing described above, shall be filed and served at least twenty-three days prior to the hearing on such request. This twenty-three day period allows for twenty days notice and response time (pursuant to LBR 9013-1), as well as three days to allow parties an opportunity to review the responsive pleading prior to the hearing.

19. An objection to any Filing shall be filed and served within twenty (20) days after the date of service, but in no event later than three (3) court days prior to the hearing on the motion. An objection to a Filing shall be served pursuant to the procedures described above as well as upon the entity whose motion is being opposed.

20. Where an emergency hearing on less than twenty (20) days' notice is essential and otherwise unavoidable, the Court may hear the matter at the regularly scheduled Omnibus Hearing or at any another time on less than ten (10) days' notice, but only if all essential parties have been properly notified and are able to be present before the Court at that time. Orders entered on such basis may be subject to further modification upon objection to such order after notice to all parties as set forth in this Order. The procedure for such expedited relief is as set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 9073-1.

21. Unless the Court orders otherwise, for good cause shown, where the Filing is a motion for relief from the automatic stay pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d) and where such Filing is filed within the time period set forth above, the preliminary hearing on such matter will be set on the next scheduled Omnibus Hearing date. Any objections to such Filing shall be filed and served as required by this Order. The automatic stay shall remain in effect in all such matters after the initial hearing pending final resolution of such matter. Except as specifically set forth herein, all other procedures for such motions shall otherwise conform to the Local Rules and the Bankruptcy Rules.

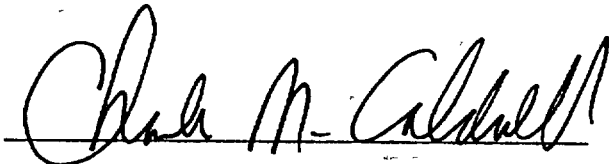

22. On the last business day of each month and commencing with December 31, 2002, or as soon thereafter as is practicable, Debtors shall cause a copy of this Order, as may have been modified or amended from time to time, to be served upon each party that has filed a notice of appearance or request for notice in this case during the preceding month.

23. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or relating to the implementation of this Order.

24. Notice of the Motion as described therein and the notice of emergency hearings described in this Court's Order Continuing Emergency Hearing on Certain Emergency Motions, entered in these cases as a separate order on December 23, 2002, is deemed adequate and appropriate under the circumstances and in full compliance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules of this Court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
