Laura,

Please shred page 2 of the briefing notes for Brian. We decided not to pass numbers any farther up the chain, since they are still an incomplete picture of the total outcome. I'll send you a copy of the one-pager that we are preparing for Sam to send to the Commissioners through the EDO.

Thanks for the TIA, my boss required me to be somewhere else at 4:00 PM, missed the afternoon briefing

Tomorrow, 8:30, MJ's office for cracking consistency.....

Thanks again,

Laura
