Laura,

release

Nothing to distribute It's too incomplete and too likely to be spread about and misconstrued in its current state. I do have some results to share and was hoping to have more, but Lochbaum's letter to Markey seems to have hijacked my time, again.

We have you on the agenda for tommorrow's meeting. Just wanted to check and see if you had any preliminary write-up on the risk assessment that you would like me to distribute to the 0350 email group

release

Let me know

Laura
