5 Requirement/Measurement Criteria:
The subject DIE Section 13.2(1b) states in part:
"Periodic inspections of the pad and access road (not less than monthly) will be made during construction or operation. These inspections are intended to ensure that drainage characteristics (as discussed above) have not been altered in a way that would create preferential flow into or toward a borehole or surface runoff impoundment areas which would result in ponding of water that would be pumpable with standard equipment."
6 Description of Condition:
Contrary to the above requirement, no evidence exists that drill pads and access have been inspected on a monthly basis for changes in drainage characteristics.

10 Recommended Action: (Not required for PR)				-
- Inspect pads and access roads to determine if drainage characteristics have changed since the last regular inspections.
- Re-initiate monthly inspections of pads and access roads within the Conceptual Controlled Area Boundary.
- Determine adverse impacts of not having conducted the monthly inspections.
