MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

Pacific Gas and Electric Company ("PG&E"), the debtor and debtor in possession in the above-captioned Chapter 11 case, requests authority to pay certain filing fee and printer's costs in connection with the filing of registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") for the debt securities to be issued under PG&E's proposed Plan of Reorganization. This request is made pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 363(b)(1).

I. FACTUAL BACKGROUND<sup>1</sup>

PG&E filed a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code on April 6, 2001. A trustee has not been appointed, and PG&E continues to function as a debtor-in-possession pursuant to Sections 1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

PG&E, with its parent corporation, PG&E Corporation and Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee"), jointly has proposed a Plan of Reorganization ( the "Plan"). The Disclosure Statement for the Plan (the "Disclosure Statement") was approved by the Court on July 31, 2003. The confirmation hearing has been scheduled to commence on November 3, 2003.

18 A significant component of the Plan involves the issuance of debt securities by a 19 Reorganized Debtor as a means of financing the implementation of the Plan.

As set forth in PG&E's Motion for Authority to Pay Fees of Designated Underwriters' Counsel, filed on August 19, 2003, PG&E will utilize underwriters and designated underwriters' counsel in connection with the securities offerings. Specifically, PG&E has requested authority to pay underwriters' counsel to assist with, among other items, the preparation of the registration statement and related prospectus to be filed with the SEC by PG&E for the offering of New Money Notes<sup>2</sup> to the public.

<sup>1</sup> The evidentiary basis and support for the facts set forth in this Motion are contained in the Declaration of Michael J. Donnelly filed concurrently herewith.

Conditions precedent to the effectiveness of the Plan, include the consummation of the sale of the New Money Notes by the Reorganized Debtor.<sup>3</sup> Once the registration statement is filed, there may be a lengthy SEC review process for the securities offering before the registration statement is declared effective. Therefore, in order to meet the foregoing conditions precedent to the effectiveness of the Plan, PG&E intends to file the registration statement as soon as possible. Currently, the legal work and due diligence process is underway in connection with the preparation of the registration statement and PG&E anticipates that the registration statements may be ready for filing by September 30, 2003.

At the time the registration statement is filed, PG&E will be required to pay filing 10 fees to the SEC. PG&E estimates that the total filing fee may be up to $1,102,290 based on 11 a total principal amount of $8.7 billion in debt to be offered subject to increase or decrease in 12 accordance with the actual amount registered (the SEC filing fee increases from $9.20 for each $1 million of debt offered to $126.70 as early as October 1, 2003). In addition, a professional printer will be needed to prepare and file the registration statement with the SEC in the electronic filing format required by SEC Regulation S-T. The printer's costs for these services are a function of the size of the filing, the number of amendments required by the SEC staff and the number of individual revisions made in preparing the filing and 18 amendments; as a result, these fees are difficult to estimate in advance. However, PG&E anticipates that the printer's costs for these services will not exceed $500,000 prior to confirmation of the Plan. After confirmation, additional amendments will be required and preliminary and final prospectus must be printed to conduct the offering. To the extent 22 necessary, a separate application will be made with respect to these additional costs. 23

MOTION FOR AUTHORITY TO PAY FILING FEES AND PRINTER'S COSTS

II. PAYMENT OF SEC FILING FEES AND PRINTER'S COSTS FOR FILING OF REGISTRATION STATEMENT IS APPROPRIATE PURSUANT TO BANKRUPTCY CODE SECTION 363(B)(1)

The Court has considerable discretion in approving a request pursuant to Section 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code ("[t]he trustee, after notice and a hearing, may use, sell or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate"). See Dai-Ichi Kangyo Bank, Ltd. v. Montgomery Ward Holding Corp. (In re Montgomery Ward Holding Corp.), 242 B.R. 147, 153 (D. Del. 1999) (affirming the bankruptcy court's decision to approve expenditure for employee incentive programs, noting that bankruptcy court has considerable discretion in approving a Section 363(b) motion).

In determining whether to authorize a transaction under Section 363(b)(1), courts require a debtor to show that a sound business purpose justifies such actions, applying the business judgment test. See, e.g., Stephens Indus., Inc. v. McClung, 789 F.2d 386, 389-90 (6th Cir. 1986); Comm. of Equity Sec. Holders v. Lionel Corp. (In re Lionel Corp.), 722 F.2d 1063, 1071 (2d Cir. 1983); see also 3 Lawrence P. King, Collier on Bankruptcy [363.02[1][g] (15th ed. rev. 1998).

Once the debtor has articulated a rational business justification, a presumption attaches that the decision was made "on an informed basis, in good faith and in the honest belief that the action taken was in the best interests of the [debtor]." See, e.g., Official Comm. of Subordinated Bondholders v. Integrated Res., Inc. (In re Integrated Res., Inc.), 147 B.R. 650, 656 (S.D.N.Y. 1992) (citing Smith v. Van Gorkom, 488 A.2d 858 (Del.
1985)).

Sound business justifications support PG&E's request to pay the SEC filing fee and printer's costs described above. These costs must be incurred in order to file the registration statement with the SEC and to proceed with the process of obtaining SEC clearance for the debt securities offerings that are necessary to implement the Plan. PG&E believes that the registration statement must be filed promptly in order to ensure that PG&E can timely meet the conditions precedent to the effectiveness of the Plan. Finally, PG&E is
