thank you.

We took advantage of a question related to the government-wide on-line rulemaking initiative to speak with Mindy concerning the comment libraries.

I let her know the results of the NMSS review and that NRR was examining the comment files. I also reiterated that the comments remained available through ADAMS and the PDR. Mindy was comfortable with reopening the comment libraries and agreed to discuss it with Mrs. Norry. Pat agreed.

Carol has spoken with our contractor. The comment libraries on Ruleforum have been reopened. Please inform your staff.

Thanks to all for your assistance in reviewing the libraries. I do believe it was a positive factor in influencing the decision.
