Re: CFC Logistics, Inc. v. Milford Township, et al.
Milford Township v. CFC

Dear Judge Biehn:

This letter is in response to the letter dated September 30, 2003 from Robert J. Sugarman. It appears that Mr. Sugarman faxed this letter to your office on September 30, 2003. However, it was sent to my office via regular mail. It was received by me upon opening the mail today at 1:00 p.m.

CFC objects to the dissemination of the documents referred to in Mr. Sugarman's letter, which are protected under Your Honor's confidentiality ruling.

CFC believes the decision as to the use of these documents relative to the NRC proceedings is properly before the Administrative Law Judge. In fact, I am forwarding herewith a copy of a letter which Mr. Sugarman also sent to CFC's counsel in Washington, DC, wherein he informed Judge Farrar of this issue and his intent to bring this matter before Judge Farrar.

Honorable Kenneth G. Biehn

Respectfully yours,

KERNS, PEARLSTINE, ONORATO
& FATH, LLP
