Ameren UE Meeting with the NRC - November 12, 2003

A meeting has been scheduled by Ameren UE with the NRC for November 12, 2003 to discuss design details of a safety-related, digital I&C system planned for installation at Callaway. This I&C system is being developed by Framatome ANP, which will participate in the November 12 discussions. The material to be presented by Framatome ANP is proprietary in nature and an affidavit is enclosed in compliance with 10 CFR 2.790.

Also enclosed is a draft of the presentation material that Framatome ANP plans to discuss at the November 12 meeting.

Very truly yours,

James F. Mallay, Director

6. The following criteria are customarily applied by FANP to determine whether information should be classified as proprietary:

- (a) The information reveals details of FANP's research and development plans and programs or their results.
- (b) Use of the information by a competitor would permit the competitor to significantly reduce its expenditures, in time or resources, to design, produce, or market a similar product or service.
- (c) The information includes test data or analytical techniques concerning a process, methodology, or component, the application of which results in a competitive advantage for FANP.
- (d) The information reveals certain distinguishing aspects of a process, methodology, or component, the exclusive use of which provides a competitive advantage for FANP in product optimization or marketability.
- (e) The information is vital to a competitive advantage held by FANP, would be helpful to competitors to FANP, and would likely cause substantial harm to the competitive position of FANP.

7. In accordance with FANP's policies governing the protection and control of information, proprietary information contained in this Document have been made available, on a limited basis, to others outside FANP only as required and under suitable agreement providing for nondisclosure and limited use of the information.

8. FANP policy requires that proprietary information be kept in a secured file or area and distributed on a need-to-know basis.

9. The foregoing statements are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.

SUBSCRIBED before me this 30th day of October, 2003.
